Notification of the Government Pension Fund

Re: The policy of not accepting any kind of gifts and gratuities from performing duties
(No Gift Policy)

2024

In this regard, it is appropriate to revise the Notification of the Government Pension Fund (GPF) Re: The policy of not accepting any kind of gifts and gratuities from performing duties (No Gift Policy) to be more appropriate.

By virtue of Section 24 of Government Pension Fund Act B.E. 2539, therefore Secretary-General hereby issues a Notification as follows:

Article 1 This Notification is called Notification of the Government Pension Fund Re: The policy of not accepting any kind of gifts and gratuities from performing duties (No Gift Policy) 2024.

Article 2 This Notification shall come into force as from the date following the announcement date.

Article 3 Cancel the Notification of the Government Pension Fund Re: The policy of not accepting any kind of gifts and gratuities from performing duties (No Gift Policy) 2023.

Article 4 Government Pension Fund (GPF) would like to announce a policy of not accepting any kind of gifts and gratuities from performing duties (No Gift Policy) and confirms the intentions of all GPF staff, including that all executives and personnel do not accept any kind of gifts and gratuities from performing duties (No Gift Policy) whether before, while or after performing duties. This includes refraining from any actions that may be conflict of interests. Moreover, no personnel shall receive any gifts or other benefits that can be monetarily valued from any individual, except it is allowed by law, or receive any property or other benefits in an ethical manner by the criteria and quantities specified by the National Anti-Corruption Commission. GPF staff will conduct themselves in accordance with the ethical standards of government officials, will regard good governance principle, strengthen the organizational culture of ethics and transparency to comply with good corporate governance policy and create good attitudes and values of performing duties with ethics, transparency and fairness until it becomes the culture of the organization.

Announced on the 5th Day of January, 2024
